

What does Paul say is better than getting married?

- A. Having multiple spouses
- B. Having children
- C. Remaining single
- D. Finding a partner

According to Paul, how should married couples treat each other?

- A. With indifference
- B. With jealousy and suspicion
- C. With mutual respect and love
- D. With aggression

What does Paul say about divorce in his discussion on marriage?

- A. It is a sin to get divorced
- B. It is up to each individual's preference
- C. It is always the best solution
- D. It should be avoided except in cases of infidelity

According to Paul, what should unmarried people focus on?

- A. Serving God wholeheartedly
- B. Pursuing worldly pleasures
- C. Finding a spouse as soon as possible
- D. Ignoring their spiritual life

What does Paul say about the challenges of marriage?

- A. It can bring distractions from serving God

- B. It is always easy and fulfilling
- C. It is a burden that should be avoided
- D. It is the only path to true happiness

According to Paul, what is the purpose of marriage?

- A. To help each other grow in faith and love
- B. To have children
- C. To gain financial stability
- D. To fulfill societal expectations

How does Paul describe the state of singleness?

- A. A curse to be avoided
- B. A gift from God
- C. An unfortunate circumstance
- D. A temporary phase

What does Paul say about the responsibilities of married couples?

- A. To focus solely on their own desires
- B. To seek fulfillment outside the marriage
- C. To prioritize their spouse's needs above their own
- D. To ignore each other's feelings

According to Paul, how should Christians view their marital status?

- A. As a calling from God
- B. As a personal choice with no spiritual significance
- C. As a temporary arrangement
- D. As a burden to be endured

What advice does Paul give to widows and widowers?

- A. To mourn their loss forever
- B. To quickly remarry to avoid loneliness
- C. To seek companionship at any cost
- D. To consider remaining single if possible

PlayBibleQuiz.com