

According to 1 Peter 5:2, how should elders shepherd the flock of God?

- A. reluctantly
- B. half-heartedly
- C. willingly
- D. forcefully

What is the attitude that elders should have as they shepherd the flock of God, as per

- A. eagerly
- B. casually
- C. grudgingly
- D. indifferently

In 1 Peter 5:3, what should elders not do as they shepherd the flock of God?

- A. domineer over those in their charge
- B. lead by example
- C. show compassion and care
- D. serve with humility

According to 1 Peter 5:4, what will faithful elders receive when the Chief Shepherd ap

- A. the crown of glory
- B. fame and recognition
- C. material riches
- D. earthly power

What does 1 Peter 5:1 instruct elders to do?

- A. rule with an iron fist

- B. seek personal gain
- C. shepherd the flock of God
- D. neglect their responsibilities

How should elders serve as examples to the flock according to 1 Peter 5:3?

- A. in superiority
- B. in arrogance
- C. in humility
- D. in pride

What should elders be examples of, as mentioned in 1 Peter 5:3?

- A. deceitfulness
- B. good conduct
- C. corruption
- D. dishonesty

According to 1 Peter 5:2, elders should not shepherd the flock of God out of what motives?

- A. for recognition
- B. for shameful gain
- C. for power
- D. for personal glory

What should elders be eager to do, as mentioned in 1 Peter 5:2?

- A. gain power
- B. seek fame
- C. shepherd the flock of God
- D. amass wealth

In 1 Peter 5:4, who is referred to as the Chief Shepherd?

- A. Jesus Christ
- B. Moses
- C. David
- D. Abraham

PlayBibleQuiz.com