

What is the root of all evil according to 1 Timothy 6:10?

- A. Kindness
- B. Generosity
- C. Happiness
- D. The love of money

Answer: D. The love of money

According to 1 Timothy 6:6, what is great gain?

- A. Power and influence
- B. Fame and fortune
- C. Godliness with contentment
- D. Material possessions

Answer: C. Godliness with contentment

What does 1 Timothy 6:9 warn against?

- A. Those who prioritize family over wealth
- B. Those who live modestly
- C. Those who give to charity
- D. Those who desire to be rich

Answer: D. Those who desire to be rich

What is the fate of those who fall into temptation and a snare according to 1 Timothy

- A. Eternal life and salvation

- B. Destruction and perdition
- C. Happiness and fulfillment
- D. Wealth and success

Answer: B. Destruction and perdition

What does 1 Timothy 6:3 advise against?

- A. Humility and meekness
- B. Charity and compassion
- C. Forgiveness and mercy
- D. Doctrine that aligns with godliness

Answer: D. Doctrine that aligns with godliness

Who is described as being proud, knowing nothing, and obsessed with disputes and

- A. A person who is obsessed with disputes and arguments
- B. A compassionate and understanding person
- C. A person who seeks peace and harmony
- D. A humble and wise individual

Answer: A. A person who is obsessed with disputes and arguments

According to 1 Timothy 6:5, what do some people suppose godliness is?

- A. A path to spiritual enlightenment
- B. A means of financial gain
- C. A way to connect with others
- D. A source of inner peace

Answer: B. A means of financial gain

What does 1 Timothy 6:7 remind believers about?

- A. We can achieve anything through hard work
- B. Our possessions define our worth
- C. We brought nothing into the world, and we can take nothing out of it
- D. Material wealth is the key to happiness

Answer: C. We brought nothing into the world, and we can take nothing out of it

What is described as being the source of all kinds of evil in 1 Timothy 6:10?

- A. The love of money
- B. Spiritual growth and enlightenment
- C. Honest labor and diligence
- D. Altruism and selflessness

Answer: A. The love of money

What does 1 Timothy 6:8 remind believers to be content with?

- A. Luxury and excess
- B. Status and recognition
- C. Food and clothing
- D. Achievements and success

Answer: C. Food and clothing

