

What is the main message that Paul emphasizes in 2 Corinthians 4:1-4:18?

- A. The challenges and rewards of being a minister of the gospel
- B. The history of the city of Corinth
- C. The benefits of living a luxurious lifestyle
- D. The importance of personal wealth

According to Paul, what is the ultimate goal of being a minister of the gospel?

- A. To accumulate personal wealth
- B. To spread the message of salvation and hope
- C. To gain fame and recognition
- D. To have power and control over others

What challenges does Paul face as a minister of the gospel in 2 Corinthians 4:1-4:18?

- A. Lack of purpose and direction
- B. Persecution, hardships, and opposition
- C. Favoritism and special treatment
- D. Financial prosperity and success

How does Paul view the rewards of being a minister of the gospel?

- A. As surpassing the temporary struggles and hardships
- B. As insignificant compared to personal gain
- C. As a distraction from a comfortable lifestyle
- D. As a burden that is not worth the effort

What is the source of Paul's strength and perseverance in his ministry?

- A. His material possessions and wealth

- B. His faith in God and the power of the Holy Spirit
- C. His connections and influence with others
- D. His own intelligence and charisma

How does Paul encourage other ministers of the gospel to approach their work?

- A. With a desire for personal gain and recognition
- B. With a disregard for the needs of the congregation
- C. With sincerity and a focus on serving others
- D. With a competitive attitude towards fellow ministers

What is the key message that Paul wants his readers to take away from 2 Corinthians

- A. The need for personal achievement and success
- B. The power of God's grace and the hope of salvation
- C. The importance of accumulating wealth and possessions
- D. The value of popularity and fame

How does Paul describe the gospel message in 2 Corinthians 4:1-4:18?

- A. As a message that brings only temporary satisfaction
- B. As a trivial and insignificant message
- C. As a burden that weighs him down
- D. As a treasure carried in jars of clay

What motivates Paul to continue his ministry despite the challenges he faces?

- A. The pursuit of personal fame and recognition
- B. The promise of material wealth and success
- C. The fear of failure and disappointment
- D. His love for God and his desire to share the gospel

How does Paul view the temporary struggles and difficulties of being a minister of the

- A. As obstacles that cannot be overcome
- B. As proof that his work is not worthwhile
- C. As reasons to give up and abandon his ministry
- D. As opportunities to demonstrate the power of God

PlayBibleQuiz.com