

What did the widow tell Elisha she had in her house?

- A. A jar of oil
- B. A bundle of clothes
- C. A bag of gold
- D. A basket of fruit

Answer: A. A jar of oil

How many sons did the widow have?

- A. Two
- B. Three
- C. One
- D. Four

Answer: A. Two

What did Elisha instruct the widow to do with the oil?

- A. Sell it in the market
- B. Bury it in the ground
- C. Pour it into empty jars
- D. Use it for cooking

Answer: C. Pour it into empty jars

How many jars did the widow collect from her neighbors?

- A. One

- B. Many
- C. A few
- D. None

Answer: B. Many

What happened when the widow poured the oil into the jars?

- A. The jars broke and spilled the oil
- B. The oil kept flowing until all the jars were full
- C. The oil turned into water
- D. The oil disappeared

Answer: B. The oil kept flowing until all the jars were full

What did the prophet Elisha ask the widow to bring him?

- A. A basket
- B. A pot
- C. A bowl
- D. A jar

Answer: D. A jar

How many sons did the widow have?

- A. Two
- B. One
- C. Three
- D. Four

Answer: A. Two

What did Elisha instruct the widow to do with the jar of oil?

- A. Bury it in the ground
- B. Sell it in the market
- C. Drink it
- D. Pour it into all the jars she had

Answer: D. Pour it into all the jars she had

What did the prophet promise the widow if she followed his instructions?

- A. She would never face hardship again
- B. She would become rich
- C. Her sons would become kings
- D. The oil would not run out

Answer: D. The oil would not run out

How did the widow's sons help in the process of filling the jars with oil?

- A. They brought the jars to her
- B. They sold the oil in the market
- C. They drank the oil
- D. They refused to help

Answer: A. They brought the jars to her

