

Who falsely accused Paul of bringing Gentiles into the temple?

- A. Roman soldiers
- B. Pharisees
- C. Some Jews from Asia
- D. Scribes

Answer: C. Some Jews from Asia

What did the crowd do when they saw Paul in the temple?

- A. They offered to help him escape
- B. They welcomed him with open arms
- C. They ignored him
- D. They stirred up the whole crowd and seized him

Answer: D. They stirred up the whole crowd and seized him

Who came to Paul's aid during the riot in the temple?

- A. Elders of the city
- B. High priest
- C. Roman commander and soldiers
- D. Jewish council

Answer: C. Roman commander and soldiers

What did the Roman commander mistakenly think Paul was?

- A. Jewish high priest

- B. Greek philosopher
- C. Roman citizen
- D. Egyptian who started a revolt

Answer: D. Egyptian who started a revolt

How did Paul avoid being flogged by the Roman soldiers?

- A. He convinced the soldiers of his innocence
- B. He revealed his Roman citizenship
- C. He escaped the prison
- D. He bribed the soldiers

Answer: B. He revealed his Roman citizenship

Who plotted to kill Paul while he was in custody?

- A. High priest
- B. More than forty Jews
- C. Roman commander
- D. Pharisees

Answer: B. More than forty Jews

How did Paul's nephew find out about the plot to kill Paul?

- A. He was informed by a friend
- B. He had a dream about it
- C. He read it in a letter
- D. He overheard it and reported it to the Roman commander

Answer: D. He overheard it and reported it to the Roman commander

Where did the Roman commander send Paul for his safety?

- A. Jerusalem
- B. Rome
- C. Caesarea
- D. Damascus

Answer: C. Caesarea

Who did Paul appear before in Caesarea for his trial?

- A. Governor Felix
- B. High priest
- C. King Agrippa
- D. Roman emperor

Answer: A. Governor Felix

How did Paul's time in custody in Caesarea end?

- A. He was released immediately
- B. He was sentenced to death
- C. He escaped from prison
- D. He was kept in custody for two years without a verdict

Answer: D. He was kept in custody for two years without a verdict

