

What was the sin committed by Ananias and Sapphira?

- A. Refusing to give to the poor
- B. Stealing from the church
- C. Disobeying the apostles
- D. Lying to the Holy Spirit

What happened to Ananias after he lied about the amount of money he gave?

- A. He ran away in shame
- B. He was praised for his generosity
- C. He fell down dead
- D. He was forgiven by Peter

Who was the first to confront Ananias about his deception?

- A. Peter
- B. John
- C. James
- D. Paul

What did Sapphira do after her husband's death?

- A. She sued the apostles
- B. She repeated the lie and also fell down dead
- C. She confessed and repented
- D. She fled the city

What was the reaction of the early church to the judgment against Ananias and Sapphira?

- A. Great fear came upon all who heard about it

- B. They ignored the incident
- C. They celebrated their removal from the community
- D. They questioned the apostles' authority

What was the true motivation behind Ananias and Sapphira's deception?

- A. Misunderstanding of church rules
- B. Fear of persecution
- C. Financial hardship
- D. Desire for recognition and praise

What lesson can be learned from the story of Ananias and Sapphira?

- A. The power of forgiveness and second chances
- B. The danger of questioning authority
- C. The importance of honesty and integrity in all dealings
- D. The need for strict financial regulations in the church

How did the judgment against Ananias and Sapphira affect the growth of the early church?

- A. It contributed to the purity and unity of the community
- B. It caused division and conflict among the believers
- C. It made the church leaders unpopular
- D. It led to a decrease in new converts

What did Ananias and Sapphira's deception reveal about their faith?

- A. Their faith was shallow and insincere
- B. They were influenced by outside forces
- C. They were trying to test the apostles' discernment
- D. They were true believers who made a mistake

How did the story of Ananias and Sapphira demonstrate God's justice and holiness?

- A. By overlooking their sin due to ignorance
- B. By swiftly punishing deceit and hypocrisy
- C. By using their example to teach a valuable lesson
- D. By showing mercy and forgiveness

PlayBibleQuiz.com