

Who did Moses appoint as leaders over the tribes of Israel?

- A. merchants
- B. chiefs
- C. soldiers
- D. farmers

Answer: B. chiefs

What did Moses tell the leaders to do?

- A. ignore the people
- B. judge fairly
- C. be harsh
- D. show favoritism

Answer: B. judge fairly

How many leaders were appointed by Moses?

- A. twenty
- B. five
- C. fifteen
- D. ten

Answer: D. ten

What was the role of these appointed leaders?

- A. to collect taxes

- B. to help Moses judge the people
- C. to be in charge of the army
- D. to build houses

Answer: B. to help Moses judge the people

What did Moses instruct the leaders to do?

- A. only listen to the wealthy
- B. hear out their fellow Israelites
- C. make quick decisions
- D. ignore complaints

Answer: B. hear out their fellow Israelites

Who were the leaders chosen by Moses?

- A. criminals
- B. young and inexperienced
- C. wise and respected men
- D. foreigners

Answer: C. wise and respected men

What was the purpose of appointing these leaders?

- A. to create conflict
- B. to oppress the people
- C. to increase Moses' power
- D. to share the burden of leadership

Answer: D. to share the burden of leadership

How were the leaders supposed to judge the people?

- A. fairly and without partiality
- B. based on personal preferences
- C. harshly and unfairly
- D. by flipping a coin

Answer: A. fairly and without partiality

What did Moses hope to achieve by appointing leaders?

- A. to create division
- B. to make the Israelites stronger
- C. to enrich himself
- D. to control the people

Answer: B. to make the Israelites stronger

What did Moses emphasize to the appointed leaders?

- A. Ignore the people's needs
- B. Seek personal gain
- C. Be arrogant and proud
- D. Do not be afraid or discouraged

Answer: D. Do not be afraid or discouraged

