

What was the main theme of Moses' third sermon in Deuteronomy 31:1-33:29?

- A. Sacrifice of Animals
- B. Renewal of the Covenant
- C. Conquest of Canaan
- D. Building of the Tabernacle

Answer: B. Renewal of the Covenant

What did Moses instruct the Israelites to do in preparation for entering the Promised

- A. Worship idols
- B. Avoid the land of Canaan
- C. Be strong and courageous
- D. Forget about God's promises

Answer: C. Be strong and courageous

Who was appointed as the new leader of the Israelites after Moses?

- A. Samuel
- B. Joshua
- C. David
- D. Aaron

Answer: B. Joshua

What did Moses remind the Israelites of regarding their history and God's faithfulness

- A. Their disobedience and failures

- B. Their wealth and possessions
- C. Their own strength and wisdom
- D. God's provision and protection

Answer: D. God's provision and protection

What did Moses warn the Israelites about in relation to their future in the Promised Land?

- A. The ease of conquest
- B. The consequences of disobedience
- C. The abundance of blessings
- D. The absence of challenges

Answer: B. The consequences of disobedience

What did Moses emphasize as the key to success and prosperity for the Israelites?

- A. Relying on human wisdom
- B. Seeking worldly pleasures
- C. Following God's commands
- D. Pursuing personal ambitions

Answer: C. Following God's commands

What did Moses urge the Israelites to do in response to God's faithfulness and promises?

- A. Choose independence from God
- B. Choose death and curses
- C. Choose wealth and power
- D. Choose life and blessings

Answer: D. Choose life and blessings

What did Moses prophesy about the future of the Israelites if they turned away from God?

- A. Destruction and exile
- B. Peace and prosperity
- C. Eternal happiness
- D. Victory and conquest

Answer: A. Destruction and exile

What did Moses promise the Israelites if they remained faithful to God and His covenant?

- A. Punishment and suffering
- B. Ignorance and confusion
- C. Restoration and blessings
- D. Abandonment and rejection

Answer: C. Restoration and blessings

What final exhortation did Moses give to the Israelites before his death?

- A. Choose to love and obey God
- B. Choose to rebel and disobey God
- C. Choose to live in fear and doubt
- D. Choose to follow false gods

Answer: A. Choose to love and obey God

