

What does the Teacher declare is meaningless in Ecclesiastes 1:2?

- A. Everything is meaningless
- B. Pursuing wealth
- C. Enjoying life
- D. Helping others

Answer: A. Everything is meaningless

According to Ecclesiastes 1:4, what continues forever?

- A. Human life
- B. The sun
- C. Wealth
- D. Knowledge

Answer: B. The sun

What does the Teacher say in Ecclesiastes 1:8 cannot be satisfied?

- A. The stomach
- B. The heart
- C. The mind
- D. The eye

Answer: D. The eye

In Ecclesiastes 1:11, what is described as having no remembrance?

- A. The wise

- B. Former generations
- C. The righteous
- D. Great deeds

Answer: B. Former generations

What does the Teacher compare to striving after the wind in Ecclesiastes 1:14?

- A. Making money
- B. Planting a garden
- C. Chasing after wisdom
- D. Building a house

Answer: C. Chasing after wisdom

According to Ecclesiastes 1:18, what brings much sorrow?

- A. Experiencing new things
- B. Increasing knowledge
- C. Having a family
- D. Traveling the world

Answer: B. Increasing knowledge

What does the Teacher say is wearisome in Ecclesiastes 1:8?

- A. Toil under the sun
- B. Contemplating life
- C. Rest and relaxation
- D. Meditation and prayer

Answer: A. Toil under the sun

What does the Teacher declare to be a grievous task in Ecclesiastes 1:13?

- A. Pursuing wisdom
- B. Helping others
- C. Resting and relaxing
- D. Enjoying life

Answer: A. Pursuing wisdom

According to Ecclesiastes 1:15, what is crooked and cannot be straightened?

- A. What is lacking cannot be counted
- B. The path of the righteous
- C. The ways of the world
- D. Human nature

Answer: A. What is lacking cannot be counted

What does the Teacher say is a chasing after the wind in Ecclesiastes 1:17?

- A. To give is to receive blessings
- B. To rest is to find peace
- C. To love is to find joy
- D. To know is to increase sorrow

Answer: D. To know is to increase sorrow

