

According to Ecclesiastes 3:16-22, what is inevitable for both the righteous and the wicked?

- A. Revival
- B. Immortality
- C. Death
- D. Eternal life

What does Ecclesiastes 3:20 say happens to humans and animals when they die?

- A. They ascend to heaven
- B. They disappear forever
- C. They all return to dust
- D. They are reincarnated

According to Ecclesiastes 3:21, what do humans and animals both have?

- A. Different destinies
- B. No connection
- C. The same spirit
- D. Eternal souls

What does Ecclesiastes 3:22 suggest is the purpose of a person's toil and striving?

- A. To achieve greatness
- B. To accumulate wealth
- C. To gain power
- D. To enjoy the fruits of their labor

In Ecclesiastes 3:16, what does the author observe about the wicked?

- A. They are rewarded with riches

- B. They are in the place of judgment
- C. They are living in peace
- D. They are praised by all

According to Ecclesiastes 3:17, when will God judge the righteous and the wicked?

- A. At the end of the world
- B. Randomly
- C. Never
- D. There is a time for every matter and for every work

What does Ecclesiastes 3:18 say about the fate of humans and animals?

- A. Humans are superior to animals
- B. They have different destinies
- C. They have the same fate
- D. Animals have no afterlife

According to Ecclesiastes 3:19, what do humans and animals share in death?

- A. Resurrection
- B. The same fate
- C. Eternal life
- D. Different destinies

What does Ecclesiastes 3:20 say happens to the breath of humans and animals?

- A. It is recycled
- B. It disappears forever
- C. It ascends to the heavens
- D. It goes downward to the earth

In Ecclesiastes 3:22, what does the author conclude about the enjoyment of one's work?

- A. It is sinful
- B. It is from the hand of God
- C. It is meaningless
- D. It is a distraction

PlayBibleQuiz.com