

What does the Teacher say is ultimately beyond human control?

- A. The accumulation of wealth
- B. The outcome of battles
- C. The day of death
- D. The pursuit of wisdom

According to Ecclesiastes 8:17, what does the Teacher observe about human wisdom?

- A. It brings true happiness
- B. It is ultimately meaningless
- C. It leads to eternal life
- D. It is always rewarded

In Ecclesiastes 9:11, what does the Teacher say does not guarantee success in life?

- A. Wealth and power
- B. Education and knowledge
- C. Skill and strength
- D. Fame and popularity

What does Ecclesiastes 9:12 say can happen to people despite their wisdom and understanding?

- A. Fulfillment
- B. Success
- C. Happiness
- D. Misfortune

According to Ecclesiastes 9:13-14, what can happen to a wise person's words if they are not acted upon?

- A. They will lead to prosperity

- B. They can be ignored and forgotten
- C. They will always be remembered
- D. They will change the course of history

What does the Teacher caution against in Ecclesiastes 9:16?

- A. Ignoring the teachings of the elders
- B. Relying too much on wisdom
- C. Seeking pleasure
- D. Chasing after wealth

In Ecclesiastes 9:16, what does the Teacher say can happen to the poor but wise person?

- A. Their wisdom can be overlooked
- B. They will always be honored
- C. Their words will always be heeded
- D. They will become wealthy

What does the Teacher emphasize in Ecclesiastes 9:18 as being more powerful than war?

- A. Strength is better than wisdom
- B. Wisdom is better than weapons of war
- C. Wealth is better than wisdom
- D. Fame is better than wisdom

According to Ecclesiastes 9:19, what does the Teacher say can nullify the wisdom of a person?

- A. Not having enough wealth
- B. One sinner destroying much good
- C. A lack of recognition
- D. Being in a position of power

What does Ecclesiastes 9:20-21 warn against in relation to wisdom and folly?

- A. The dangers of fame
- B. The pursuit of pleasure
- C. The love of money
- D. The unpredictable nature of life

PlayBibleQuiz.com