

Who allowed the Jews to return to Jerusalem according to Ezra 1:1-1:5?

- A. Xerxes
- B. Darius
- C. Cyrus
- D. Artaxerxes

Answer: C. Cyrus

In which city were the Jews allowed to return according to Ezra 1:1-1:5?

- A. Damascus
- B. Nineveh
- C. Jerusalem
- D. Babylon

Answer: C. Jerusalem

What book of the Bible records Cyrus allowing the Jews to return to Jerusalem?

- A. Ezra
- B. Psalms
- C. Genesis
- D. Isaiah

Answer: A. Ezra

When did Cyrus allow the Jews to return to Jerusalem?

- A. Numbers 6:1-27

- B. Leviticus 11:1-47
- C. Ezra 1:1-1:5
- D. Exodus 20:1-17

Answer: C. Ezra 1:1-1:5

What was Cyrus' title when he allowed the Jews to return to Jerusalem?

- A. King
- B. Emperor
- C. Sultan
- D. Pharaoh

Answer: A. King

Why did Cyrus allow the Jews to return to Jerusalem?

- A. He lost a bet
- B. He wanted to expand his empire
- C. He had a dream about it
- D. He was moved by the Lord to do so

Answer: D. He was moved by the Lord to do so

What was the reaction of the Jews when Cyrus allowed them to return to Jerusalem?

- A. They protested and refused to go
- B. They rejoiced and prepared to leave
- C. They ignored the decree
- D. They started a rebellion

Answer: B. They rejoiced and prepared to leave

How did Cyrus communicate his decree to the Jews?

- A. In a written proclamation
- B. By word of mouth
- C. Through a messenger
- D. Through a public speech

Answer: A. In a written proclamation

What did Cyrus allow the Jews to take with them to Jerusalem?

- A. Weapons and armor
- B. Food and supplies
- C. Their valuables from the temple
- D. Only their clothes

Answer: C. Their valuables from the temple

Who was among the first to respond to Cyrus' decree?

- A. The prophets of the Lord
- B. The priests and Levites
- C. The family heads of Judah and Benjamin
- D. The elders of Israel

Answer: C. The family heads of Judah and Benjamin

