

Who approached Zerubbabel and the heads of the families to help build the temple?

- A. Darius
- B. Tattenai
- C. Ezra
- D. Haggai

Answer: B. Tattenai

What did the officials ask Zerubbabel and the heads of the families to provide?

- A. More gold and silver
- B. A sacrifice of animals
- C. A detailed building plan
- D. A list of the names of the men working on the temple

Answer: D. A list of the names of the men working on the temple

What did the officials find when they searched the records in Babylon?

- A. Evidence of corruption among the workers
- B. A decree from King Cyrus allowing the Jews to rebuild the temple
- C. A warning of impending disaster
- D. An order to stop the construction

Answer: B. A decree from King Cyrus allowing the Jews to rebuild the temple

What did the officials do after finding the decree from King Cyrus?

- A. They arrested Zerubbabel and the heads of the families

- B. They tore up the decree and left
- C. They began helping with the construction
- D. They sent a letter to King Darius asking for confirmation

Answer: D. They sent a letter to King Darius asking for confirmation

What did King Darius order to be done in response to the letter from the officials?

- A. A search of the royal archives in Babylon
- B. A celebration in honor of the temple builders
- C. The execution of Zerubbabel and the heads of the families
- D. The immediate halt of construction on the temple

Answer: A. A search of the royal archives in Babylon

What did King Darius find in the royal archives?

- A. A warning of a foreign invasion
- B. A map of the temple's layout
- C. The original decree from King Cyrus
- D. Evidence of a plot to overthrow the government

Answer: C. The original decree from King Cyrus

What did King Darius decree after finding the original decree from King Cyrus?

- A. That the officials should be punished for their interference
- B. That the Jews should be expelled from Babylon
- C. That the temple should be rebuilt at once
- D. That a new temple should be built in a different location

Answer: C. That the temple should be rebuilt at once

How did the Jews respond to King Darius' decree?

- A. They launched a rebellion against the Persian empire
- B. They continued building the temple with renewed vigor
- C. They appealed to another king for help
- D. They abandoned the project out of fear

Answer: B. They continued building the temple with renewed vigor

What was the final outcome of the opposition to the rebuilding of the temple?

- A. The Jews were expelled from Babylon
- B. The temple was destroyed by a natural disaster
- C. The temple was completed and dedicated with great joy
- D. The project was abandoned halfway through

Answer: C. The temple was completed and dedicated with great joy

Who ultimately receives the credit for the completion of the temple?

- A. Zerubbabel
- B. The workers
- C. King Darius
- D. God

Answer: D. God

