

What did Paul confront Peter about in Galatians 2:11-21?

- A. His behavior towards Gentile believers
- B. His cooking skills
- C. His choice of clothing
- D. His preaching style

Answer: A. His behavior towards Gentile believers

Who were the believers that Peter mistreated according to Galatians 2:11-21?

- A. Jews
- B. Gentiles
- C. Romans
- D. Greeks

Answer: B. Gentiles

What was Paul's reaction to Peter's behavior towards Gentile believers?

- A. Indifference
- B. Confrontation
- C. Approval
- D. Support

Answer: B. Confrontation

How did Peter react to Paul's confrontation in Galatians 2:11-21?

- A. He confronted Paul back

- B. He ignored Paul
- C. He left the church
- D. He changed his behavior

Answer: D. He changed his behavior

What did Paul emphasize in his confrontation with Peter about Gentile believers?

- A. Sabbath observance
- B. Dietary restrictions
- C. Circumcision
- D. Justification by faith

Answer: D. Justification by faith

Why was Paul upset with Peter's behavior towards Gentile believers?

- A. It was against the law
- B. It was offensive
- C. It hurt Paul's feelings
- D. It contradicted the gospel

Answer: D. It contradicted the gospel

How did the other believers react to Paul confronting Peter about his behavior?

- A. They left the church
- B. They ignored the situation
- C. They defended Peter
- D. They followed Paul's example

Answer: D. They followed Paul's example

What did Peter eventually do after Paul's confrontation in Galatians 2:11-21?

- A. He avoided Paul
- B. He ate with Gentile believers
- C. He started a new church
- D. He left the church

Answer: B. He ate with Gentile believers

How does the confrontation between Paul and Peter in Galatians 2:11-21 illustrate a lesson?

- A. The need for hierarchy in the church
- B. The importance of tradition
- C. The unity of believers in Christ
- D. The superiority of one group over another

Answer: C. The unity of believers in Christ

What lesson can we learn from Paul confronting Peter about his behavior towards Gentiles?

- A. The importance of standing up for what is right
- B. The need for gossiping about others
- C. The value of discrimination
- D. The benefits of ignoring conflicts

Answer: A. The importance of standing up for what is right

