

Why do you make me look at injustice?

- A. You punish the righteous
- B. You reward the humble
- C. You tolerate wrongdoing
- D. You uphold justice always

How long, Lord, must I call for help but you do not listen?

- A. Cry out to you, 'Violence!' but you do not save
- B. Trust in your timing
- C. Praise you for your mercy
- D. Thank you for your protection

Why do you tolerate the treacherous?

- A. You rejoice in their evil deeds
- B. You are silent while the wicked swallow up those more righteous than themselves
- C. You ignore their sins
- D. You embrace their deceit

Why are you silent while the wicked devour those more righteous than themselves?

- A. The wicked are more deserving
- B. The evil seem to overpower the righteous
- C. The righteous deserve punishment
- D. The righteous lack faith

Why do you make me look at injustice?

- A. Why do you ignore righteousness?

- B. Why do you punish the innocent?
- C. Why do you tolerate wrongdoing?
- D. Why do you reward evil?

How can you stand idly by while the wicked swallow up the righteous?

- A. You are pleased with their actions
- B. You have abandoned your creation
- C. You have forsaken your chosen ones
- D. You have made people like the fish in the sea

Why do you make me see iniquity?

- A. And why do you idly look at wrong?
- B. And why do you punish the innocent?
- C. And why do you reward evil?
- D. And why do you ignore righteousness?

Why do you make me see iniquity?

- A. Why do you ignore righteousness?
- B. Why do you punish the innocent?
- C. Why do you reward evil?
- D. Why do you idly look at wrong?

Why do you make me see trouble?

- A. Why do you reward evil?
- B. Why do you punish the innocent?
- C. Why do you ignore righteousness?
- D. Why do you make me look at wrong?

How can a just God allow evil to continue unchecked?

- A. Why do you not punish the unrighteous?
- B. Why do you let injustice prevail?
- C. Why do you turn a blind eye to sin?
- D. Why do you idly look at traitors and remain silent when the wicked swallow up the righteous?

PlayBibleQuiz.com