

According to Habakkuk 1:5, what will God do that will make the nations amazed?

- A. reveal Himself to all people
- B. destroy all the nations
- C. work in your days that you would not believe if told
- D. bring peace to the world

In Habakkuk 1:6, how does God describe the Chaldeans' movement and swiftness?

- A. slow and deliberate
- B. fierce and impetuous
- C. careful and cautious
- D. calm and gentle

What does Habakkuk 1:7 say the Chaldeans are like?

- A. they are weak and powerless
- B. they are loved and respected
- C. they are dreaded and feared
- D. they are gentle and kind

According to Habakkuk 1:8, what are the Chaldeans like in their horses?

- A. swifter than leopards
- B. faster than cheetahs
- C. slower than turtles
- D. stronger than elephants

What does Habakkuk 1:9 say the Chaldeans will do?

- A. gather captives like sand

- B. destroy all their enemies
- C. build a great empire
- D. spread peace and harmony

In Habakkuk 1:10, what do the Chaldeans scoff at and call foolish?

- A. kings and rulers
- B. the concept of peace
- C. God's power
- D. their own strength

According to Habakkuk 1:11, what does the Chaldean king's spirit do?

- A. grows stronger
- B. remains stagnant
- C. passes through and goes on
- D. weakens and fades

What does Habakkuk 1:5 say about God's work?

- A. His work is insignificant
- B. He will never work again
- C. He is doing a work in your days
- D. He has finished all His work

How is the Chaldeans' might described in Habakkuk 1:6?

- A. Their might is their strength
- B. Their might is their disadvantage
- C. Their might is their god
- D. Their might is their weakness

What will the Chaldeans do according to Habakkuk 1:7?

- A. They will come for violence
- B. They will come for help
- C. They will come for friendship
- D. They will come for peace

PlayBibleQuiz.com