

What did God promise to do for the people if they obeyed Him?

- A. Abandon them
- B. Punish them
- C. Bless them
- D. Ignore them

Answer: C. Bless them

According to Haggai 2:1-2:9, what would happen if the people disobeyed God?

- A. God would forgive them
- B. They would suffer consequences
- C. They would be rewarded
- D. Nothing would happen

Answer: B. They would suffer consequences

What did God expect from the people in order to receive His blessings?

- A. Disobedience
- B. Rebellion
- C. Obedience
- D. Indifference

Answer: C. Obedience

How did God plan to demonstrate His faithfulness to the people?

- A. By fulfilling His promises

- B. By ignoring them
- C. By punishing them
- D. By abandoning them

Answer: A. By fulfilling His promises

What was the purpose of God's blessings according to the passage?

- A. To bring glory to His name
- B. To punish the people
- C. To test their faith
- D. To show favoritism

Answer: A. To bring glory to His name

What did God promise to do for the people if they remained faithful to Him?

- A. Weaken them
- B. Strengthen them
- C. Punish them
- D. Abandon them

Answer: B. Strengthen them

How did God describe His relationship with the people in the passage?

- A. As a covenant
- B. As a contract
- C. As a friendship
- D. As a business deal

Answer: A. As a covenant

What did God promise to provide for the people if they obeyed Him?

- A. His presence
- B. His punishment
- C. His absence
- D. His wrath

Answer: A. His presence

What did God expect the people to do in response to His promises?

- A. Doubt Him
- B. Be afraid
- C. Ignore Him
- D. Have courage

Answer: D. Have courage

According to the passage, what would be the result of the people obeying God?

- A. They would be cursed severely
- B. God would forget about them
- C. They would be blessed abundantly
- D. Nothing would change

Answer: C. They would be blessed abundantly

