

According to Haggai 2:6-2:7, who promises to shake the heavens and the earth?

- A. High Priest Joshua
- B. Prophet Haggai
- C. God
- D. King Darius

In Haggai 2:6-2:7, what is going to be shaken by God?

- A. The heavens and the earth
- B. The temple
- C. The people of Israel
- D. The city walls

What is the significance of God shaking the heavens and the earth in Haggai 2:6-2:7?

- A. To bring about change and restoration
- B. To punish the people
- C. To show His power
- D. To test the faith of the people

Who is the audience of the promise to shake the heavens and the earth in Haggai 2:6-2:7?

- A. The people of Israel
- B. The Egyptians
- C. The Philistines
- D. The Babylonians

What response should the people have to God shaking the heavens and the earth in Haggai 2:6-2:7?

- A. Fear not

- B. Flee the city
- C. Build stronger houses
- D. Sacrifice more animals

How does God describe the shaking of the heavens and the earth in Haggai 2:6-2:7?

- A. Unexpectedly
- B. Once more
- C. Twice more
- D. Continuously

What is the purpose of God shaking the heavens and the earth in Haggai 2:6-2:7?

- A. To scatter the people
- B. To fill this house with glory
- C. To bring darkness
- D. To destroy the temple

What does God promise to do after shaking the heavens and the earth in Haggai 2:6-2:7?

- A. Send a plague
- B. Give peace
- C. Bring war
- D. Create chaos

Who will be shaken along with the heavens and the earth in Haggai 2:6-2:7?

- A. All nations
- B. Only the people of Israel
- C. The animals
- D. The plants

What is the ultimate purpose of God shaking the heavens and the earth in Haggai 2:6

- A. To destroy everything
- B. To test the faith of the people
- C. To establish His kingdom
- D. To bring about chaos

PlayBibleQuiz.com