

Who promises to fill the temple with glory in Haggai 2:7-2:9?

- A. The high priest
- B. God
- C. Prophet Haggai
- D. King Darius

Answer: B. God

What is the specific promise mentioned in Haggai 2:7-2:9?

- A. To rebuild the walls
- B. To appoint a new king
- C. To bring prosperity to the land
- D. To fill the temple with glory

Answer: D. To fill the temple with glory

Which chapter of Haggai contains the promise to fill the temple with glory?

- A. 1
- B. 4
- C. 3
- D. 2

Answer: D. 2

What is the significance of God filling the temple with glory?

- A. A test of faith

- B. A sign of impending destruction
- C. A reward for the people's disobedience
- D. Symbol of His presence and favor

Answer: D. Symbol of His presence and favor

Who was the prophet delivering the message about God filling the temple with glory?

- A. Zechariah
- B. Nehemiah
- C. Haggai
- D. Ezra

Answer: C. Haggai

What response did the people have upon hearing about God's promise in Haggai 2:7-

- A. Indifferent and apathetic
- B. Doubtful and skeptical
- C. Encouraged and motivated to work
- D. Angry and rebellious

Answer: C. Encouraged and motivated to work

How does the promise to fill the temple with glory relate to the restoration of Israel?

- A. A distraction from the main issues
- B. A false hope given to the people
- C. Symbol of God's faithfulness and restoration
- D. Irrelevant to the situation

Answer: C. Symbol of God's faithfulness and restoration

What did the glory of the temple represent to the Israelites?

- A. A place for political gatherings
- B. A symbol of their own power
- C. An idol to be worshiped
- D. God's dwelling among His people

Answer: D. God's dwelling among His people

How does the promise of filling the temple with glory reflect God's character?

- A. Capricious and unpredictable
- B. Faithful to His promises and covenant
- C. Easily swayed by human actions
- D. Harsh and unforgiving

Answer: B. Faithful to His promises and covenant

What lesson can be drawn from God's promise to fill the temple with glory in Haggai

- A. God's presence brings restoration and blessing
- B. Human effort is sufficient without divine intervention
- C. Material wealth is the ultimate goal
- D. Promises are meant to be broken

Answer: A. God's presence brings restoration and blessing

