

What does James 2:1-2:13 warn against?

- A. Showing favoritism
- B. Helping the poor
- C. Being generous
- D. Being humble

According to James 2:1-2:13, why is showing favoritism wrong?

- A. It helps build a strong community
- B. It promotes equality
- C. It goes against the faith in Jesus Christ
- D. It shows kindness to others

How does James 2:1-2:13 suggest we should treat others?

- A. With impartiality and without favoritism
- B. By ignoring the needs of the poor
- C. By giving special treatment to the wealthy
- D. By only associating with those of high social status

What does favoritism in James 2:1-2:13 show about a person's faith?

- A. It demonstrates strong faith in God
- B. It proves one's commitment to the church
- C. It highlights one's generosity
- D. It shows a lack of faith in Jesus Christ

How does James 2:1-2:13 suggest we should view all people?

- A. Judging them by their appearance

- B. As equally valuable in the eyes of God
- C. Based on their social status
- D. According to their material possessions

What is the main message of James 2:1-2:13 regarding favoritism?

- A. It can lead to positive outcomes
- B. It is forbidden and goes against the teachings of Jesus
- C. It is acceptable in certain situations
- D. It is a personal choice with no consequences

According to James 2:1-2:13, why should we avoid showing favoritism?

- A. To gain personal benefits
- B. Because others will judge us
- C. Because it is a sin that goes against the law of love
- D. To maintain social status

What does James 2:1-2:13 teach us about judging others?

- A. We should only judge those who are different from us
- B. We should not judge others based on their outward appearance or social status
- C. It is important to make quick judgments about people
- D. It is acceptable to discriminate based on personal preferences

How does James 2:1-2:13 relate to the concept of equality?

- A. It promotes the idea that all individuals are equal in the eyes of God
- B. It supports the idea of social hierarchy
- C. It encourages discrimination based on personal preferences
- D. It suggests that some people are more valuable than others

What should be our attitude towards others according to James 2:1-2:13?

- A. Treat others with love, respect, and without favoritism
- B. Only associate with those who can benefit us
- C. Ignore those who are different from us
- D. Show kindness only to those who deserve it

PlayBibleQuiz.com