

According to James 3:1, what are teachers of the Word of God warned about?

- A. Becoming wealthy
- B. Being too lenient
- C. Ignoring their responsibilities
- D. Judging more strictly

What does James compare the tongue to in James 3:5?

- A. A small spark that sets a forest on fire
- B. A gentle breeze
- C. A sturdy oak tree
- D. A cool stream

In James 3:8, what does James describe the tongue as?

- A. A peaceful river flowing gently
- B. A strong fortress that protects
- C. A joyful song that brings happiness
- D. A restless evil full of deadly poison

According to James 3:9, what do we sometimes use our tongue for that is not right?

- A. To offer encouragement
- B. To speak the truth in love
- C. To curse human beings
- D. To praise God

What does James compare the tongue to in James 3:10?

- A. Both praising and cursing

- B. Remaining silent
- C. Only speaking blessings
- D. Only speaking curses

In James 3:11, what examples does James use to illustrate the inconsistency of the tongue?

- A. A tree bearing only good fruit
- B. A garden with beautiful flowers
- C. A well providing clean water
- D. A spring producing both fresh and bitter water

According to James 3:12, what can a fig tree not produce?

- A. Pears
- B. Grapes
- C. Apples
- D. Olives

What does James liken the tongue to in James 3:6?

- A. A source of wisdom and knowledge
- B. A source of light and joy
- C. A world of evil among the parts of the body
- D. A tool for building others up

According to James 3:3, what do we put in a horse's mouth to make it obey us?

- A. A whip
- B. A bit
- C. A bridle
- D. A saddle

What does James warn against in James 3:2 in relation to the tongue?

- A. Stumbling in speech
- B. Speaking too softly
- C. Using too many words
- D. Being too boastful

PlayBibleQuiz.com