

What did Zophar accuse Job of being?

- A. an adulterer
- B. a murderer
- C. a liar
- D. a thief

According to Zophar, what did Job need to do in order to be blameless?

- A. apologize to his friends
- B. repent and seek God
- C. seek revenge on his enemies
- D. sacrifice animals

What does Zophar describe as being 'higher than heaven'?

- A. the stars in the sky
- B. Job's suffering
- C. God's wisdom
- D. the mountains

According to Zophar, what happens to those who forget God?

- A. they become wealthy
- B. they gain eternal life
- C. they perish
- D. they are blessed abundantly

How does Zophar describe the hypocrite's hope?

- A. it shall bring blessings

- B. it shall be fulfilled
- C. it shall perish
- D. it shall last forever

What does Zophar advise Job to do at the end of his rebuke?

- A. flee from your troubles
- B. curse God and die
- C. give up all hope
- D. prepare your heart and stretch out your hands toward God

How does Zophar describe the wisdom of God?

- A. as high as heaven
- B. as deep as the sea
- C. as wide as the earth
- D. as bright as the sun

What does Zophar advise Job to do in order to be pure and upright?

- A. put away iniquity from your hand
- B. seek vengeance on your enemies
- C. offer sacrifices daily
- D. blame God for your troubles

According to Zophar, what will be the result of Job seeking God?

- A. your friends will abandon you
- B. you will suffer even more
- C. you will be secure and will have no fear
- D. God will punish you severely

How does Zophar describe the hypocrite's confidence?

- A. it will last forever
- B. it will be cut off
- C. it will bring joy
- D. it will be rewarded

PlayBibleQuiz.com