

Who is speaking in Job 16:1-22?

- A. God
- B. Elihu
- C. Job
- D. Satan

What is Job pleading for in this passage?

- A. Mercy
- B. Power
- C. Vengeance
- D. Wealth

What is the name of the book in which Job's plea for mercy is found?

- A. Proverbs
- B. Genesis
- C. Job
- D. Psalms

Who are Job's friends in this passage?

- A. David, Solomon, Nathan
- B. Eliphaz, Bildad, Zophar
- C. Moses, Aaron, Joshua
- D. Peter, James, John

What is the main theme of Job's plea for mercy?

- A. Prosperity

- B. Peace
- C. Suffering
- D. Joy

What does Job feel has happened to him in this passage?

- A. He has gained power
- B. God has turned against him
- C. He has become wealthy
- D. He has found peace

What does Job call his friends in this passage?

- A. Great advisors
- B. True friends
- C. Loyal companions
- D. Miserable comforters

What does Job wish for in this passage?

- A. A new home
- B. A mediator
- C. A new job
- D. A financial blessing

What is Job's emotional state in this passage?

- A. Angry
- B. Joyful
- C. Content
- D. Desperate

How does Job view his suffering in this passage?

- A. Fair
- B. Bearable
- C. Unjust
- D. Deserved

PlayBibleQuiz.com