

Who will perish according to Job 18:1-21?

- A. The wealthy
- B. The wise
- C. The righteous
- D. The wicked

What is the fate of the wicked in Job 18:1-21?

- A. They will be forgiven
- B. They will be exalted
- C. They will be consumed by fire
- D. They will be rewarded

Who is the speaker in Job 18:1-21?

- A. Zophar
- B. Job
- C. Bildad
- D. Elihu

What does Bildad accuse the wicked of in Job 18:1-21?

- A. Living in peace
- B. Living in prosperity
- C. Living in darkness
- D. Living in righteousness

How does Bildad describe the wicked in Job 18:1-21?

- A. They are uprooted from the land of the living

- B. They are blessed beyond measure
- C. They are praised by all
- D. They are loved by God

What fate awaits the descendants of the wicked in Job 18:1-21?

- A. They will inherit great wealth
- B. They will be exalted among men
- C. They will be protected by God
- D. They will be cut off from the earth

According to Bildad, what will the wicked be like in the eyes of the righteous in Job 18:1-21?

- A. A leader to follow
- B. A horror to behold
- C. A friend to embrace
- D. A blessing to cherish

What analogy does Bildad use to describe the fate of the wicked in Job 18:1-21?

- A. A moth eaten garment
- B. A crown of gold
- C. A flowing river
- D. A sturdy oak tree

How does Bildad describe the fate of the wicked's memory in Job 18:1-21?

- A. It will be celebrated for generations
- B. It will be honored by all
- C. It will be written in the stars
- D. It will perish from the earth

What does Bildad warn the wicked to do in Job 18:1-21?

- A. Seek revenge
- B. Embrace their fate
- C. Flee from the pit
- D. Defend their actions

PlayBibleQuiz.com