

What did Job say in Job 19:25 is his Redeemer?

- A. unknown Redeemer
- B. living Redeemer
- C. false Redeemer
- D. dead Redeemer

Answer: B. living Redeemer

According to Job 19:26, what will Job see with his own eyes?

- A. Demons
- B. Satan
- C. Angels
- D. God

Answer: D. God

In Job 19:27, what does Job declare he will see for himself?

- A. God
- B. the devil
- C. his friends
- D. his family

Answer: A. God

Who does Job refer to as 'my flesh' in Job 19:26?

- A. rotting flesh

- B. my own flesh
- C. animal flesh
- D. strangers' flesh

Answer: B. my own flesh

What does Job lament in Job 19:21 about his friends?

- A. they have abandoned me
- B. they have become my enemies
- C. they have mocked me
- D. they have betrayed me

Answer: B. they have become my enemies

How does Job describe his own breath in Job 19:17?

- A. unknown to my wife
- B. sweet to my wife
- C. pleasant to my wife
- D. offensive to my wife

Answer: D. offensive to my wife

What does Job desire to be inscribed in a record forever in Job 19:23?

- A. my suffering
- B. my mistakes
- C. my words
- D. my sins

Answer: C. my words

Who does Job accuse of wronging him in Job 19:6?

- A. his friends
- B. God
- C. his family
- D. Satan

Answer: B. God

What does Job say has happened to his relatives and close friends in Job 19:14?

- A. they have gone away
- B. they have betrayed him
- C. they have stayed with him
- D. they have helped him

Answer: A. they have gone away

What does Job say has come upon him in Job 19:6?

- A. prosperity
- B. misery
- C. peace
- D. joy

Answer: B. misery

