

What was Job's occupation?

- A. A fisherman
- B. A wealthy man
- C. A farmer
- D. A shepherd

Answer: B. A wealthy man

How many sons did Job have?

- A. 5
- B. 7
- C. 10
- D. 3

Answer: C. 10

What calamity struck Job's livestock?

- A. They were sold
- B. They ran away
- C. They were stolen and killed
- D. They all got sick

Answer: C. They were stolen and killed

Who brought the news of Job's losses to him?

- A. Servants

- B. Neighbors
- C. Friends
- D. Relatives

Answer: A. Servants

What was Job's reaction to the news of his losses?

- A. He fell to the ground and worshiped
- B. He laughed
- C. He became angry
- D. He cursed God

Answer: A. He fell to the ground and worshiped

Who was responsible for causing Job's suffering?

- A. Job himself
- B. Satan
- C. God
- D. Nature

Answer: B. Satan

What did Job lose in addition to his livestock?

- A. His house
- B. His health
- C. His children
- D. His reputation

Answer: C. His children

How did Job's friends initially react to his suffering?

- A. They blamed him for his misfortune
- B. They mourned with him and sat with him in silence
- C. They mocked him
- D. They abandoned him

Answer: B. They mourned with him and sat with him in silence

What did Job do after his initial reaction to his suffering?

- A. He tore his robe, shaved his head, and fell to the ground in worship
- B. He turned to alcohol
- C. He ran away
- D. He sought revenge

Answer: A. He tore his robe, shaved his head, and fell to the ground in worship

What was God's response to Job's suffering?

- A. He abandoned Job
- B. He allowed Satan to test Job but set limits on what he could do
- C. He gave Job more blessings
- D. He punished Job for his sins

Answer: B. He allowed Satan to test Job but set limits on what he could do

