

What did Eliphaz accuse Job of in his speech?

- A. Being righteous
- B. Helping others
- C. Being wealthy
- D. Sinning

Answer: D. Sinning

According to Eliphaz, what would happen if Job repented?

- A. He would be exalted
- B. He would be restored
- C. He would be abandoned
- D. He would be punished

Answer: B. He would be restored

What did Eliphaz suggest Job should do to receive blessings from God?

- A. Defy God
- B. Ignore God
- C. Submit to God
- D. Question God

Answer: C. Submit to God

How did Eliphaz describe the wicked in his speech?

- A. They are always punished

- B. They suffer eternally
- C. They repent quickly
- D. They prosper temporarily

Answer: D. They prosper temporarily

What did Eliphaz warn Job about in his speech?

- A. Family relationships
- B. God's judgment
- C. Material possessions
- D. Human compassion

Answer: B. God's judgment

How did Eliphaz describe God's punishment in his speech?

- A. Slow and gentle
- B. Unpredictable and random
- C. Forgiving and merciful
- D. Swift and severe

Answer: D. Swift and severe

What did Eliphaz accuse Job of lacking in his speech?

- A. Fear of God
- B. Love for others
- C. Humility
- D. Faith

Answer: A. Fear of God

According to Eliphaz, what should Job do to receive mercy from God?

- A. Boast about his righteousness
- B. Ignore God
- C. Demand mercy
- D. Humble himself

Answer: D. Humble himself

How did Eliphaz describe Job's suffering in his speech?

- A. Temporary setback
- B. Unfair trial
- C. Deserved punishment
- D. Test of faith

Answer: C. Deserved punishment

What did Eliphaz urge Job to do in his speech?

- A. Return to God
- B. Abandon his faith
- C. Give up hope
- D. Seek revenge

Answer: A. Return to God

