

In Job 23:2, what does Job say is bitter?

- A. My complaint
- B. My suffering
- C. My friends' words
- D. My blessings

Answer: A. My complaint

According to Job 23:3, what does Job wish he could find?

- A. Peace
- B. Wealth
- C. God
- D. Answers

Answer: C. God

What does Job say he would do if he could find God in Job 23:4?

- A. Praise Him
- B. Ask for forgiveness
- C. Present his case
- D. Offer sacrifices

Answer: C. Present his case

Job uses what imagery to describe God's presence in Job 23:8-9?

- A. Walking by

- B. Hiding from
- C. Conversing with
- D. Judging from afar

Answer: A. Walking by

What does Job say he has treasured more than his necessary food in Job 23:12?

- A. His wealth
- B. God's words
- C. His family
- D. His health

Answer: B. God's words

According to Job 23:14, what does Job believe about God's intentions?

- A. He carries out His decree
- B. He ignores the righteous
- C. He changes His mind
- D. He punishes without reason

Answer: A. He carries out His decree

Job declares in Job 23:15-16 that he is filled with what feeling?

- A. Resentment
- B. Terror
- C. Anger
- D. Hopelessness

Answer: B. Terror

What does Job say in Job 23:17 will terrify him?

- A. Sickness
- B. Darkness
- C. Death
- D. Loneliness

Answer: B. Darkness

According to Job 23:10, what does Job believe will happen to him in the end?

- A. He will be forgotten
- B. He will be destroyed
- C. He will come forth as gold
- D. He will be abandoned

Answer: C. He will come forth as gold

What does Job say will happen to him if he could find God in Job 23:3-4?

- A. He would be ignored
- B. He would be abandoned
- C. He would be punished
- D. He would be vindicated

Answer: D. He would be vindicated

