

Who is described as the one who hangs the earth on nothing in Job 26:7?

- A. God
- B. A giant turtle
- C. A group of angels
- D. The devil

Answer: A. God

What is compared to a drop in a bucket in Job 26:14?

- A. The stars
- B. The mountains
- C. The nations
- D. The oceans

Answer: C. The nations

According to Job 26:8, what covers the moon?

- A. A cloud
- B. A dragon
- C. A veil
- D. A blanket

Answer: A. A cloud

In Job 26:13, what is described as God's Spirit?

- A. A river

- B. A bird
- C. The heavens
- D. A flame

Answer: C. The heavens

What is compared to a faint whisper in Job 26:14?

- A. The thunder of his power
- B. A crashing wave
- C. A roaring lion
- D. An earthquake

Answer: A. The thunder of his power

Who has established the north over the void in Job 26:7?

- A. God
- B. A group of scientists
- C. A mystical being
- D. A benevolent king

Answer: A. God

What is described as stirring up the sea in Job 26:12?

- A. A mighty ship
- B. A massive whale
- C. God's power
- D. A powerful storm

Answer: C. God's power

According to Job 26:11, what does God tremble?

- A. The mountains
- B. The angels
- C. The pillars of heaven
- D. The oceans

Answer: C. The pillars of heaven

What is described as his hand that has pierced the fleeing serpent in Job 26:13?

- A. His power
- B. A sword
- C. A lightning bolt
- D. A spear

Answer: A. His power

Who has adorned the heavens with his beauty in Job 26:13?

- A. God
- B. A group of artists
- C. A team of scientists
- D. A mythical creature

Answer: A. God

