

What is described as more valuable than gold in Job 28?

- A. Silver
- B. Wisdom
- C. Rubies
- D. Diamonds

Answer: B. Wisdom

Where is wisdom said to be found in Job 28?

- A. In the mountains
- B. In the valleys
- C. In the rivers
- D. Nowhere

Answer: D. Nowhere

What is compared to wisdom in Job 28?

- A. Power
- B. Fame
- C. Riches
- D. Fear of the Lord

Answer: D. Fear of the Lord

What is described as being unable to purchase wisdom in Job 28?

- A. Diamonds

- B. Rubies
- C. Gold
- D. Silver

Answer: C. Gold

What is described as being unable to compare to wisdom in Job 28?

- A. Coral and crystal
- B. Silver and gold
- C. Fine linen
- D. Precious stones

Answer: A. Coral and crystal

What is said to be beyond human understanding in Job 28?

- A. The path to wisdom
- B. The nature of God
- C. The meaning of life
- D. The purpose of suffering

Answer: A. The path to wisdom

What is described as not being able to measure wisdom in Job 28?

- A. The vast desert
- B. The deep sea
- C. The tallest mountain
- D. The endless sky

Answer: B. The deep sea

What is said to be where wisdom comes from in Job 28?

- A. The stars in the sky
- B. The wise elders
- C. Books and scrolls
- D. God

Answer: D. God

What is described as being unable to contain wisdom in Job 28?

- A. The ocean
- B. A king's palace
- C. A library
- D. A treasure chest

Answer: A. The ocean

What is said to be the beginning of wisdom in Job 28?

- A. Intellectual pursuits
- B. Listening to wise counsel
- C. The fear of the Lord
- D. Knowledge of the world

Answer: C. The fear of the Lord

