

What was the job of Job according to Job 2:1-2:13?

- A. He was a farmer.
- B. He was a fisherman.
- C. He was a soldier.
- D. He was a wealthy and upright man who feared God.

Answer: D. He was a wealthy and upright man who feared God.

Who initiated the conversation about Job in Job 2:1-2:13?

- A. God
- B. Satan
- C. Job
- D. Job's wife

Answer: A. God

What challenge did God give to Satan regarding Job in Job 2:1-2:13?

- A. To test Job by afflicting him physically.
- B. To give Job more wealth.
- C. To bless Job with many children.
- D. To make Job famous.

Answer: A. To test Job by afflicting him physically.

How did Job respond to the afflictions he faced in Job 2:1-2:13?

- A. He blamed others for his misfortunes.

- B. He remained faithful to God and did not sin.
- C. He cursed God and gave up on his faith.
- D. He became angry and turned away from God.

Answer: B. He remained faithful to God and did not sin.

Who advised Job to curse God and die in Job 2:1-2:13?

- A. His friends
- B. His wife
- C. God
- D. Satan

Answer: B. His wife

What did Job's friends initially do when they saw his suffering in Job 2:1-2:13?

- A. They laughed at him.
- B. They sat with him in silence for seven days.
- C. They offered him money.
- D. They abandoned him.

Answer: B. They sat with him in silence for seven days.

How did Job's friends react after Job began to speak about his suffering in Job 2:1-2:13?

- A. They left him alone.
- B. They debated with him and questioned his righteousness.
- C. They agreed with everything he said.
- D. They offered him words of encouragement.

Answer: B. They debated with him and questioned his righteousness.

What did Job say he wished had never happened in Job 2:1-2:13?

- A. His marriage.
- B. The day of his birth.
- C. His faith in God.
- D. His wealth.

Answer: B. The day of his birth.

How does Job's story in Job 2:1-2:13 demonstrate his faith and righteousness?

- A. He remains steadfast in his faith and does not curse God despite his suffering.
- B. He becomes angry and rebellious towards God.
- C. He gives up on God and turns to evil.
- D. He blames others for his misfortunes and loses faith.

Answer: A. He remains steadfast in his faith and does not curse God despite his suffering.

What lesson can be learned from Job's story in Job 2:1-2:13?

- A. The value of material wealth and success.
- B. The idea that God causes suffering to test our faith.
- C. The importance of remaining faithful to God in times of suffering and hardship.
- D. The need to blame others for our misfortunes.

Answer: C. The importance of remaining faithful to God in times of suffering and hardship.

