

What is the main message of Elihu in Job 33:1-33:33?

- A. God speaks to individuals through dreams and visions.
- B. God only speaks through prophets.
- C. God does not communicate with humans.
- D. Dreams and visions are meaningless.

According to Elihu, what should people do when they receive a dream or vision?

- A. Pay attention and reflect on its meaning.
- B. Forget about it immediately.
- C. Share it with everyone.
- D. Ignore it and move on.

What does Elihu believe is the purpose of God speaking to individuals through dreams and visions?

- A. To test their faith.
- B. To confuse and mislead them.
- C. To give them false hope.
- D. To turn them from wrongdoing and keep them from pride.

How does Elihu describe God's interaction with humans through dreams and visions?

- A. He ignores them completely.
- B. He speaks in their ears and terrifies them.
- C. He speaks through angels instead.
- D. He whispers softly to them.

According to Elihu, what is the role of a mediator between God and humans?

- A. To impose God's will on others.

- B. To interpret God's message and guide individuals.
- C. To confuse people with false interpretations.
- D. To keep people away from God.

How does Elihu encourage Job to respond to the messages he receives?

- A. To listen attentively and respond in humility.
- B. To challenge God's authority and demand answers.
- C. To dismiss them as mere fantasies.
- D. To ignore them and continue in his suffering.

What does Elihu believe is the ultimate purpose of God's communication through dreams?

- A. To bring back the individual's soul from the pit.
- B. To confuse and frustrate the individual.
- C. To punish the individual for their sins.
- D. To test the individual's faith and obedience.

How does Elihu view the role of suffering in the process of God's communication?

- A. As a means to humble and refine the individual.
- B. As a sign of God's anger and rejection.
- C. As a punishment for wrongdoing.
- D. As a random and meaningless experience.

What is Elihu's advice to Job regarding his response to God's communication?

- A. Repent and acknowledge God's righteousness and mercy.
- B. Defend yourself and demand justice.
- C. Blame God for your suffering and refuse to listen.
- D. Ignore the messages and continue in your ways.

In Elihu's view, how should individuals approach God's communication through dreams?

- A. With indifference, disbelief, and a focus on worldly matters.
- B. With fear, avoidance, and a sense of hopelessness.
- C. With reverence, humility, and a desire to learn and grow.
- D. With skepticism, arrogance, and a desire for personal gain.

PlayBibleQuiz.com