

According to Elihu, who is righteous in the sight of God?

- A. The proud
- B. The wicked
- C. The upright
- D. The deceitful

Answer: C. The upright

What does Elihu say about God's justice compared to man's?

- A. God is unfair
- B. God is greater
- C. Man is greater
- D. They are equal

Answer: B. God is greater

How does Elihu describe God's knowledge and understanding?

- A. Perfect
- B. Limited
- C. Flawed
- D. Nonexistent

Answer: A. Perfect

What does Elihu say about God's treatment of the wicked?

- A. He shows them mercy

- B. He rewards them
- C. He does not spare them
- D. He ignores them

Answer: C. He does not spare them

According to Elihu, what should Job do in response to God's justice?

- A. Rebel and resist
- B. Ignore and move on
- C. Question and doubt
- D. Submit and repent

Answer: D. Submit and repent

How does Elihu describe God's control over the nations?

- A. He has no influence
- B. He destroys them
- C. He follows their lead
- D. He sets the times

Answer: D. He sets the times

What does Elihu say about God's impartiality towards rulers?

- A. He favors the rich
- B. He ignores the poor
- C. He shows no partiality
- D. He punishes the innocent

Answer: C. He shows no partiality

According to Elihu, what should Job acknowledge about God?

- A. His power and justice
- B. His cruelty and inconsistency
- C. His absence and indifference
- D. His weakness and unfairness

Answer: A. His power and justice

What does Elihu say about God's punishment of the wicked?

- A. He warns them in advance
- B. He strikes them down in the night
- C. He rewards them openly
- D. He spares them in the day

Answer: B. He strikes them down in the night

How does Elihu conclude his defense of God's justice towards Job?

- A. Reject God's wisdom
- B. Ignore my advice
- C. Listen to my words
- D. Deny the truth

Answer: C. Listen to my words

