

What is the main message Elihu delivers to Job in Job 36?

- A. God is unfair and unjust.
- B. Job should give up on his faith.
- C. God is just and righteous in all His ways.
- D. Job is to blame for his suffering.

According to Elihu, what should Job do in response to his suffering?

- A. Blame his friends for his troubles.
- B. Abandon his faith and beliefs.
- C. Keep his trust in God and seek understanding.
- D. Curse God and die.

How does Elihu describe God's power and majesty in Job 36?

- A. He is limited in knowledge and wisdom.
- B. He is indifferent and uncaring.
- C. He is weak and powerless.
- D. He is mighty in strength and understanding.

What does Elihu say about the righteous and the wicked in Job 36?

- A. God delivers the righteous and punishes the wicked.
- B. There is no difference between the righteous and the wicked.
- C. The righteous suffer while the wicked prosper.
- D. The wicked are rewarded while the righteous are punished.

How does Elihu encourage Job to respond to his suffering in Job 36?

- A. Rebel against God and demand answers.

- B. Ignore his suffering and pretend everything is fine.
- C. Humble himself before God and seek wisdom.
- D. Blame others for his troubles and seek revenge.

What does Elihu say about the way God deals with the righteous and the wicked in Job 36?

- A. He punishes the righteous and rewards the wicked.
- B. He ignores the righteous and rewards the wicked.
- C. He rewards the righteous and punishes the wicked in due time.
- D. He shows no concern for the actions of the righteous or the wicked.

Why does Elihu stress the importance of trusting in God in Job 36?

- A. Because trusting in oneself leads to success.
- B. Because God is just and wise in all His ways.
- C. Because God enjoys seeing His people suffer.
- D. Because there is no hope or help outside of God.

What is Elihu's view on the role of suffering in a person's life in Job 36?

- A. It is a punishment for past sins and wrongdoing.
- B. It is pointless and meaningless.
- C. It is a sign of God's favor and blessing.
- D. It can serve as a means of discipline and instruction.

How does Elihu describe the impact of God's justice and righteousness in Job 36?

- A. It brings deliverance and exaltation to the righteous.
- B. It causes confusion and chaos in the world.
- C. It leads to destruction and downfall for everyone.
- D. It has no effect on the lives of individuals.

In Job 36, what does Elihu suggest as the proper response to God's ways?

- A. To praise and worship Him for His wisdom and justice.
- B. To question and doubt His fairness and righteousness.
- C. To challenge and rebel against His authority.
- D. To ignore Him and live life as one pleases.

PlayBibleQuiz.com