

What does Job 37:1 describe the voice of the Almighty as?

- A. a distant echo
- B. a gentle whisper
- C. a mighty thundering voice
- D. a soft melody

Answer: C. a mighty thundering voice

According to Job 37:2, God's voice comes from where?

- A. the west
- B. the south
- C. the east
- D. the north

Answer: D. the north

What does Job 37:3 say that God's voice does?

- A. sings a lullaby
- B. strikes with his lightning
- C. sends a gentle rain
- D. whispers in the wind

Answer: B. strikes with his lightning

In Job 37:5, what does Elihu say that God's voice thunders wondrously with?

- A. his calm voice

- B. his majestic voice
- C. his stern voice
- D. his soothing voice

Answer: B. his majestic voice

What does Job 37:6 mention that God commands the snow to do?

- A. fall on the earth
- B. turn into rainbows
- C. melt into a river
- D. disappear into mist

Answer: A. fall on the earth

According to Job 37:10, what does God use to stop people from working?

- A. his wondrous works
- B. a bright light
- C. a strong wind
- D. a loud noise

Answer: A. his wondrous works

What does Job 37:12 say that God makes the clouds do?

- A. rain down fire
- B. swirl around
- C. disappear instantly
- D. form into shapes

Answer: B. swirl around

In Job 37:17, what is Elihu astounded by in God's creation?

- A. the complexity of the human body
- B. the wondrous works of him who is perfect in knowledge
- C. the beauty of the sunset
- D. the power of the ocean waves

Answer: B. the wondrous works of him who is perfect in knowledge

What does Job 37:18 say about the spreading of clouds?

- A. how they disappear suddenly
- B. how he spreads his cloud with it
- C. how they turn into rainbows
- D. how they dance in the sky

Answer: B. how he spreads his cloud with it

According to Job 37:24, why do people fear God?

- A. he regards not any that are wise of heart
- B. he controls the weather
- C. he punishes the wicked
- D. he demands sacrifice

Answer: A. he regards not any that are wise of heart

