

What was Job's confession in Job 42:6?

- A. I curse the day I was born
- B. I demand answers from God
- C. I have never sinned
- D. I repent in dust and ashes

How did God respond to Job's confession?

- A. He accepted Job's repentance
- B. He punished Job for his sins
- C. He revealed the reason for Job's suffering
- D. He ignored Job's confession

What did Job say after God's response?

- A. I deserve all the suffering I endured
- B. I will never question God again
- C. I have uttered what I did not understand
- D. I am now perfect and blameless

What did God command Job's friends to do?

- A. To offer a burnt offering for themselves
- B. To apologize to Job
- C. To leave Job alone
- D. To seek forgiveness from Job

How did God restore Job's fortunes?

- A. He doubled all that Job had before

- B. He gave Job new possessions
- C. He made Job king of the land
- D. He granted Job eternal life

What did Job name his daughters?

- A. Jemimah, Keziah, and Keren-Happuch
- B. Esther, Deborah, and Hannah
- C. Sarah, Rebecca, and Leah
- D. Mary, Martha, and Ruth

What age did Job live to after his restoration?

- A. 200 years
- B. 140 years
- C. 80 years
- D. 100 years

What did Job receive in abundance after his suffering?

- A. Power and authority
- B. Health and happiness
- C. Fame and fortune
- D. Blessings and prosperity

Why did Job's friends weep and show sympathy for him?

- A. They wanted to gain favor with Job
- B. They saw his suffering and comforted him
- C. They were moved by his humility and repentance
- D. They felt guilty for accusing him wrongly

What lesson can we learn from the story of Job's restoration?

- A. Suffering is always a punishment for sin
- B. God is merciful and faithful to those who trust in Him
- C. Material wealth is a sign of God's favor
- D. We should never question God's ways

PlayBibleQuiz.com