

What did the Lord say to Eliphaz the Temanite regarding his friends?

- A. You have pleased me with your words
- B. I am pleased with your offering for Job
- C. My wrath is kindled against you and your two friends
- D. You have spoken wisely and truthfully

Answer: C. My wrath is kindled against you and your two friends

How many bulls and rams did Job offer as a burnt offering for his friends?

- A. Ten bulls and five rams
- B. Three bulls and three rams
- C. Seven bulls and seven rams
- D. Twelve bulls and twelve rams

Answer: C. Seven bulls and seven rams

What did the Lord do for Job after he prayed for his friends?

- A. Sent him away to a distant land
- B. Left him in his suffering
- C. Took away everything he had
- D. Restored his fortunes and gave him twice as much as he had before

Answer: D. Restored his fortunes and gave him twice as much as he had before

How many daughters did Job have after his restoration?

- A. Ten daughters

- B. Five daughters
- C. Three daughters
- D. Seven daughters

Answer: D. Seven daughters

What were the names of Job's daughters?

- A. Abigail, Hannah, and Esther
- B. Mary, Martha, and Ruth
- C. Jemimah, Keziah, and Keren-happuch
- D. Sarah, Rebecca, and Leah

Answer: C. Jemimah, Keziah, and Keren-happuch

How old was Job when he died after his restoration?

- A. 140 years old
- B. 200 years old
- C. 100 years old
- D. 120 years old

Answer: A. 140 years old

What did Job give to each of his daughters as an inheritance?

- A. A share of his estate along with their brothers
- B. Nothing, as they were daughters
- C. A small token of appreciation
- D. A portion of his livestock

Answer: A. A share of his estate along with their brothers

What did Job name his first daughter?

- A. Sarah
- B. Keziah
- C. Keren-happuch
- D. Jemimah

Answer: D. Jemimah

What did Job's daughters become known for in all the land?

- A. Being the most pious women in the land
- B. Being the most beautiful women in the land
- C. Being the most powerful women in the land
- D. Being the wealthiest women in the land

Answer: B. Being the most beautiful women in the land

What did Job's sons receive as an inheritance?

- A. Nothing, as they did not need it
- B. Their father's livestock
- C. A small gift from their father
- D. A portion of their father's estate

Answer: D. A portion of their father's estate

