

Who is the speaker in Bildad's Response to Job's Lament?

- A. Elihu
- B. Zophar
- C. Job
- D. Bildad

Answer: D. Bildad

What is the subject of Bildad's response to Job's lament?

- A. Job's suffering
- B. Nature of sin
- C. Job's righteousness
- D. Justice of God

Answer: D. Justice of God

In Bildad's response, he suggests that Job's children died because of their own:

- A. Curse
- B. Illness
- C. Sin
- D. Accident

Answer: C. Sin

According to Bildad, what does Job need to do to restore his fortunes?

- A. Plead for mercy

- B. Give up on God
- C. Seek revenge
- D. Repent and seek God

Answer: D. Repent and seek God

Bildad compares the fate of the wicked to the growth of a:

- A. Grass
- B. Tree
- C. Flower
- D. Reed

Answer: D. Reed

What does Bildad say happens to those who forget God?

- A. Prosper
- B. Succeed
- C. Recover
- D. Perish

Answer: D. Perish

Bildad uses what analogy to describe the fate of the hypocrite?

- A. Rock
- B. River
- C. Spider's web
- D. Cloud

Answer: C. Spider's web

According to Bildad, what will happen to those who trust in lies?

- A. Happiness
- B. Fulfillment
- C. Success
- D. Disappointment

Answer: D. Disappointment

Bildad advises Job to inquire of the former generations and consider what they have

- A. Destroyed
- B. Ignored
- C. Built
- D. Discovered

Answer: D. Discovered

What does Bildad say about the end of the righteous man?

- A. Punishment
- B. Suffering
- C. Peace
- D. Death

Answer: C. Peace

