

What does Joel urge the people to do in Joel 1:14?

- A. Celebrate a feast
- B. Offer sacrifices
- C. Build altars
- D. Consecrate a fast

Answer: D. Consecrate a fast

In Joel 1:15, what does Joel call for the people to do?

- A. Seek advice from false prophets
- B. Continue in their wickedness
- C. Cry out to the Lord
- D. Ignore their sins

Answer: C. Cry out to the Lord

What should the people do with the trumpet in Joel 1:14?

- A. Sound an alarm
- B. Bury it
- C. Play joyful music
- D. Ignore it

Answer: A. Sound an alarm

According to Joel 1:13, what should the priests do?

- A. Mourn

- B. Dance
- C. Celebrate
- D. Ignore the situation

Answer: A. Mourn

What is the purpose of consecrating a fast in Joel 1:14?

- A. To show off
- B. To gather the people
- C. To prove their loyalty
- D. To please the king

Answer: B. To gather the people

What is the main theme of Joel 1:13-15?

- A. Ignorance
- B. Celebration
- C. Victory
- D. Call to repentance

Answer: D. Call to repentance

What will happen if the people do not respond to Joel's call in Joel 1:15?

- A. They will be ignored
- B. The day of the Lord will come
- C. Nothing will happen
- D. They will be rewarded

Answer: B. The day of the Lord will come

According to Joel 1:13, what should the people do with their hearts?

- A. Return
- B. Harden
- C. Despair
- D. Forget

Answer: A. Return

What is the consequence of not consecrating a fast in Joel 1:14?

- A. The enemy will prevail
- B. The day of the Lord is near
- C. The crops will fail
- D. The people will prosper

Answer: B. The day of the Lord is near

How does Joel describe the day of the Lord in Joel 1:15?

- A. As a day of celebration
- B. As a day of rest
- C. As a time of peace
- D. As destruction from the Almighty

Answer: D. As destruction from the Almighty

