

What was the source of Samson's strength?

- A. His weapons
- B. His physical size
- C. His long hair
- D. His diet

Answer: C. His long hair

How did Samson defeat the Philistines in one of his exploits?

- A. With his bare hands
- B. With a sword
- C. With the jawbone of a donkey
- D. With a sling

Answer: C. With the jawbone of a donkey

What did Delilah do to betray Samson?

- A. She stole his weapons
- B. She poisoned him
- C. She imprisoned him
- D. She cut off his hair

Answer: D. She cut off his hair

Why did the Philistines blind Samson?

- A. To punish him for his deeds

- B. To prevent him from escaping
- C. To weaken him and mock his strength
- D. To protect themselves from his wrath

Answer: C. To weaken him and mock his strength

Where did Samson die?

- A. In battle
- B. In the wilderness
- C. In his sleep
- D. In the temple of Dagon

Answer: D. In the temple of Dagon

What did Samson do before he died?

- A. He surrendered to the Philistines
- B. He fought fiercely against his captors
- C. He tried to escape
- D. He prayed to God for strength one last time

Answer: D. He prayed to God for strength one last time

Who betrayed Samson to the Philistines?

- A. His father
- B. Delilah
- C. His brother
- D. A Philistine spy

Answer: B. Delilah

What was the secret of Samson's strength?

- A. His knowledge of tactics
- B. His Nazarite vow
- C. His divine heritage
- D. His physical training

Answer: B. His Nazarite vow

What was the final act of Samson's life?

- A. He begged for mercy
- B. He surrendered to his enemies
- C. He brought down the temple on the Philistines
- D. He escaped from captivity

Answer: C. He brought down the temple on the Philistines

How did Samson's story end?

- A. He disappeared mysteriously
- B. He became a king
- C. He was exiled from his people
- D. He died along with his enemies

Answer: D. He died along with his enemies

