

What is the subject of Jeremiah's plea for mercy in Lamentations 3:1-3:66?

- A. Mercy
- B. Judgment
- C. Punishment
- D. Justice

Answer: A. Mercy

Who is the author of Lamentations?

- A. Ezekiel
- B. Jeremiah
- C. Daniel
- D. Isaiah

Answer: B. Jeremiah

In Lamentations, what has happened to the city of Jerusalem?

- A. Enlarged
- B. Rebuilt
- C. Destroyed
- D. Conquered

Answer: C. Destroyed

What emotions does Jeremiah express in Lamentations?

- A. Excitement and anticipation

- B. Anger and hatred
- C. Grief and sorrow
- D. Joy and happiness

Answer: C. Grief and sorrow

What does Jeremiah cry out for in his plea for mercy?

- A. Revenge
- B. Retribution
- C. Restoration
- D. Rebellion

Answer: C. Restoration

What is the tone of Lamentations 3:1-3:66?

- A. Thankful
- B. Lamenting
- C. Celebratory
- D. Praising

Answer: B. Lamenting

What is the main theme of Lamentations?

- A. Love and joy
- B. Suffering and hope
- C. Peace and prosperity
- D. War and victory

Answer: B. Suffering and hope

How does Jeremiah describe the condition of his soul in Lamentations?

- A. Strengthened
- B. Rejoicing
- C. Elevated
- D. Bowed down

Answer: D. Bowed down

What is Jeremiah's attitude towards God in Lamentations?

- A. Disobedient
- B. Dependent
- C. Doubtful
- D. Defiant

Answer: B. Dependent

What lesson can be learned from Jeremiah's plea for mercy in Lamentations?

- A. The importance of faith and trust
- B. The futility of prayer
- C. The power of vengeance
- D. The inevitability of destruction

Answer: A. The importance of faith and trust

