

What were Nadab and Abihu doing when they were struck dead?

- A. Offering unauthorized fire before the Lord
- B. Eating forbidden food in the holy place
- C. Praying fervently in the tabernacle
- D. Playing music for the congregation

Answer: A. Offering unauthorized fire before the Lord

Who were Nadab and Abihu in relation to Moses?

- A. Cousins of Moses
- B. Brothers of Miriam
- C. Nephews of Joshua
- D. Sons of Aaron

Answer: D. Sons of Aaron

What was the immediate consequence of Nadab and Abihu's disobedience?

- A. They were struck with a plague
- B. They were banished from the tabernacle
- C. They were excommunicated from the community
- D. They were consumed by fire from the Lord

Answer: D. They were consumed by fire from the Lord

What did Moses instruct Aaron and his remaining sons after the death of Nadab and Abihu?

- A. To offer sacrifices for the deceased

- B. Not to mourn or show signs of mourning
- C. To wear sackcloth and ashes
- D. To fast for seven days

Answer: B. Not to mourn or show signs of mourning

How did the people react to the death of Nadab and Abihu?

- A. They mourned loudly
- B. They celebrated their sacrifice
- C. They remained silent
- D. They demanded answers from Moses

Answer: C. They remained silent

What was the significance of the fire that consumed Nadab and Abihu?

- A. It was a punishment from Moses
- B. It was a random accident
- C. It was a natural occurrence
- D. It showed the holiness and power of God

Answer: D. It showed the holiness and power of God

What did Aaron do after the death of his sons?

- A. Fled from the tabernacle in fear
- B. Remained silent and accepted the punishment
- C. Resigned from his position as high priest
- D. Blamed Moses for their death

Answer: B. Remained silent and accepted the punishment

What lesson can be learned from the death of Nadab and Abihu?

- A. The need for stricter rules in the tabernacle
- B. The dangers of being a priest
- C. The unpredictability of divine punishment
- D. The importance of obeying God's commands

Answer: D. The importance of obeying God's commands

How did the death of Nadab and Abihu impact the priestly duties in the tabernacle?

- A. It caused a rift between Aaron and Moses
- B. It resulted in the closure of the tabernacle
- C. It led to a period of mourning and fasting
- D. It served as a warning for future generations

Answer: D. It served as a warning for future generations

What command did God give to Aaron and his sons after the death of Nadab and Abi

- A. To avoid entering the tabernacle at night
- B. To offer sacrifices twice a day
- C. To wear special garments at all times
- D. To distinguish between the holy and the common

Answer: D. To distinguish between the holy and the common

