

What was the purpose of the Day of Atonement according to Leviticus 16?

- A. To commemorate a military victory
- B. To make atonement for the sins of the Israelites
- C. To offer sacrifices to idols
- D. To celebrate a festival

Answer: B. To make atonement for the sins of the Israelites

Who was responsible for performing the rituals on the Day of Atonement?

- A. The high priest
- B. A king
- C. A prophet
- D. A group of elders

Answer: A. The high priest

What animals were sacrificed on the Day of Atonement?

- A. A lamb
- B. Two doves
- C. A pig
- D. A bull and a goat

Answer: D. A bull and a goat

How did the high priest prepare himself before entering the Most Holy Place on the D

- A. By fasting for a week

- B. By wearing a mask
- C. By reciting prayers
- D. By washing and putting on holy garments

Answer: D. By washing and putting on holy garments

What was the significance of the scapegoat in the Day of Atonement ceremony?

- A. It was released into the wilderness
- B. It represented a blessing for the community
- C. It was sacrificed as an offering
- D. It symbolically carried away the sins of the people

Answer: D. It symbolically carried away the sins of the people

How often was the Day of Atonement to be observed according to Leviticus 16?

- A. Once a month
- B. Every Sabbath
- C. Every day
- D. Once a year

Answer: D. Once a year

What was the purpose of the incense used on the Day of Atonement?

- A. To purify the air
- B. To repel evil spirits
- C. To add fragrance to the temple
- D. To create a cloud covering the mercy seat

Answer: D. To create a cloud covering the mercy seat

How did the Israelites observe the Day of Atonement?

- A. By going on a pilgrimage
- B. By throwing a party
- C. By sacrificing animals at home
- D. By fasting and refraining from work

Answer: D. By fasting and refraining from work

Why was the Day of Atonement considered the most holy day of the year?

- A. Because it was the day of the high priest's birthday
- B. Because it involved the cleansing of all sins
- C. Because it was a time of feasting and celebration
- D. Because it marked the beginning of a new year

Answer: B. Because it involved the cleansing of all sins

What did the rituals of the Day of Atonement symbolize for the Israelites?

- A. A victory in battle
- B. God's forgiveness and reconciliation with His people
- C. A new beginning for the nation
- D. The establishment of a covenant

Answer: B. God's forgiveness and reconciliation with His people

