

What types of animals can be offered as burnt offerings?

- A. Dogs, cats, rabbits
- B. Bulls, sheep, goats
- C. Pigs, chickens, turkeys
- D. Lions, tigers, bears

What is the purpose of burnt offerings according to Leviticus?

- A. To please the gods
- B. To feed the hungry
- C. To make atonement for the one offering it
- D. To entertain the priests

What is the required age for a bull to be offered as a burnt offering?

- A. 3 years old
- B. A year old
- C. 10 years old
- D. 6 months old

What should be done with the skin of the burnt offering animal?

- A. It should be kept as a trophy
- B. It should be given to the priests
- C. It should be burned along with the animal
- D. It should be removed and taken outside the camp

Who is responsible for slaughtering the animal for the burnt offering?

- A. A designated butcher

- B. A random person
- C. The one offering it
- D. The High Priest

What should be sprinkled on the altar before the burnt offering is placed on it?

- A. Oil
- B. Water
- C. Milk
- D. Blood

How should the animal for the burnt offering be killed?

- A. In the fields
- B. At the entrance to the tent of meeting
- C. In the temple
- D. By drowning

What should be done with the entrails and legs of the burnt offering animal?

- A. They should be thrown away
- B. They should be offered to the priests
- C. They should be washed with water
- D. They should be burned on the altar

What is the aroma of the burnt offering meant to be to the Lord?

- A. A fragrant perfume
- B. A pleasing aroma
- C. No aroma at all
- D. An offensive smell

How often were burnt offerings to be made according to Leviticus?

- A. Never again
- B. Only on special occasions
- C. Once a year
- D. Regularly, daily or as needed

PlayBibleQuiz.com