

What should the person do if they are a witness to a crime and fail to report it?

- A. Confess their sin
- B. Offer a burnt offering
- C. Blame someone else
- D. Ignore it

Answer: A. Confess their sin

What should be brought as a guilt offering if someone unintentionally touches something

- A. A female lamb or goat
- B. A dove
- C. A bull
- D. Money

Answer: A. A female lamb or goat

What should the person do if they realize they have sinned and are guilty?

- A. Hide their sin
- B. Confess their sin
- C. Blame someone else
- D. Pretend it didn't happen

Answer: B. Confess their sin

What is required for the guilt offering to be accepted by the Lord?

- A. A written confession

- B. A loud proclamation
- C. Blood to be sprinkled on the altar
- D. A long prayer

Answer: C. Blood to be sprinkled on the altar

How should the person present their guilt offering to the priest?

- A. Leave it on the street
- B. Send it by mail
- C. Bring it to the entrance of the tent of meeting
- D. Hide it in a secret place

Answer: C. Bring it to the entrance of the tent of meeting

What should the person do if they cannot afford a lamb for the guilt offering?

- A. Borrow money
- B. Bring two doves or two pigeons
- C. Do nothing
- D. Ask for a discount

Answer: B. Bring two doves or two pigeons

What should the person do after presenting their guilt offering to the priest?

- A. Plead for mercy
- B. Receive atonement and forgiveness
- C. Leave immediately
- D. Offer another sacrifice

Answer: B. Receive atonement and forgiveness

What should the person do if they are uncertain whether they have sinned or not?

- A. Consult a fortune teller
- B. Blame others
- C. Ignore the feeling
- D. Bring a guilt offering to the Lord

Answer: D. Bring a guilt offering to the Lord

What is the significance of laying hands on the head of the guilt offering?

- A. Marking ownership
- B. Blessing the animal
- C. Transferring sin and guilt to the animal
- D. Cleansing the animal

Answer: C. Transferring sin and guilt to the animal

What should the person do if they have wronged someone and want to make amends?

- A. Avoid the person
- B. Blame the person
- C. Pretend nothing happened
- D. Make restitution and offer a guilt offering

Answer: D. Make restitution and offer a guilt offering

