

According to Malachi 1:6, what title does God give to Himself?

- A. King
- B. Master
- C. Judge
- D. Father

Answer: D. Father

In Malachi 1:7, what does God accuse the priests of offering?

- A. Fragrant incense
- B. Defiled food
- C. Pure sacrifices
- D. Costly offerings

Answer: B. Defiled food

According to Malachi 1:10, what does God wish the doors of the temple to be closed

- A. Nothing
- B. The wicked
- C. The poor
- D. Foreigners

Answer: A. Nothing

What does God say will happen to the priests if they do not take His warning to heart

- A. They will be forgiven

- B. They will be cursed
- C. They will be exalted
- D. They will be rewarded

Answer: B. They will be cursed

In Malachi 1:8, what are the priests accused of despising?

- A. God's name
- B. The people
- C. The sacrifices
- D. The law

Answer: A. God's name

What does God say will be the priests' punishment for offering defiled food in Malachi 1:13?

- A. They will be forgiven
- B. They will be praised
- C. They will be rewarded
- D. They are cursed

Answer: D. They are cursed

According to Malachi 1:11, what is God's name to be great among?

- A. The Israelites
- B. The nations
- C. The angels
- D. The priests

Answer: B. The nations

What is God's accusation against the priests in Malachi 1:12?

- A. They fear His name
- B. They profane His name
- C. They glorify His name
- D. They honor His name

Answer: B. They profane His name

In Malachi 1:14, what does God say the priests have done in violating His covenant?

- A. Kept
- B. Honored
- C. Deceived
- D. Fulfilled

Answer: C. Deceived

What are the priests accused of showing towards God in Malachi 1:6?

- A. Admiration
- B. Love
- C. Respect
- D. Contempt

Answer: D. Contempt

