

What is the main theme of Malachi 2:10-2:16?

- A. The importance of sacrifices
- B. The need for forgiveness
- C. God's faithfulness
- D. The people's unfaithfulness

Answer: D. The people's unfaithfulness

Who is being accused of unfaithfulness in Malachi 2:10-2:16?

- A. The foreign nations
- B. The priests
- C. The people of Israel
- D. The prophets

Answer: C. The people of Israel

What is one consequence of the people's unfaithfulness in Malachi 2:10-2:16?

- A. Famine in the land
- B. Destruction of their cities
- C. Loss of their wealth
- D. Their prayers being ignored

Answer: D. Their prayers being ignored

How does God describe the people's behavior in Malachi 2:10-2:16?

- A. Treacherous

- B. Faithful
- C. Humble
- D. Generous

Answer: A. Treacherous

What is the call to action for the people in Malachi 2:10-2:16?

- A. Ignore the warnings
- B. Seek revenge
- C. Continue in their ways
- D. Return to the Lord

Answer: D. Return to the Lord

How does God feel about the people's offerings in Malachi 2:10-2:16?

- A. Pleased
- B. Indifferent
- C. Amused
- D. Disgusted

Answer: D. Disgusted

What is the relationship between God and the people in Malachi 2:10-2:16?

- A. Father and son
- B. Strangers
- C. Master and servant
- D. Enemies

Answer: A. Father and son

What is the ultimate consequence of the people's unfaithfulness in Malachi 2:10-2:16

- A. Forgiveness and redemption
- B. Blessings and prosperity
- C. Judgment and punishment
- D. Eternal life

Answer: C. Judgment and punishment

What is the message of hope in Malachi 2:10-2:16?

- A. God's promise of restoration
- B. God's promise of silence
- C. God's promise of exile
- D. God's promise of destruction

Answer: A. God's promise of restoration

How does Malachi 2:10-2:16 emphasize the importance of faithfulness?

- A. By downplaying its significance
- B. By ignoring it completely
- C. By focusing on rituals instead
- D. By contrasting it with unfaithfulness

Answer: D. By contrasting it with unfaithfulness

