

According to Malachi 3:6, what does God say about His nature?

- A. I am a vengeful God
- B. I am easily swayed
- C. I am distant from my people
- D. I the Lord do not change

Answer: D. I the Lord do not change

What does Malachi 3:7 say the people of Israel have done?

- A. Robbed God
- B. Shared their blessings with others
- C. Loved God faithfully
- D. Built a temple for God

Answer: A. Robbed God

In Malachi 3:8, what does God challenge the people to do?

- A. Worship other gods
- B. Ignore the poor and needy
- C. Bring the whole tithe into the storehouse
- D. Disobey the commandments

Answer: C. Bring the whole tithe into the storehouse

According to Malachi 3:9, what does God accuse the people of withholding from Him

- A. Tithes and offerings

- B. Prayers
- C. Sacrifices
- D. Praise and worship

Answer: A. Tithes and offerings

What promise does God make in Malachi 3:10 if the people bring their tithes and offerings?

- A. I will abandon you
- B. I will punish you severely
- C. I will ignore your sacrifices
- D. I will open the windows of heaven and pour out so much blessing

Answer: D. I will open the windows of heaven and pour out so much blessing

In Malachi 3:11, what does God promise to do for the people who obey Him?

- A. Rebuke the devourer for their sake
- B. Send a famine upon the land
- C. Abandon them to their enemies
- D. Ignore their prayers

Answer: A. Rebuke the devourer for their sake

What does Malachi 3:12 say the people will be called if they obey God?

- A. A cursed people
- B. A delightful land
- C. A forgotten tribe
- D. An abandoned nation

Answer: B. A delightful land

According to Malachi 3:6, who is the Lord speaking to?

- A. The kings of Israel
- B. The priests of Levi
- C. The sons of Jacob
- D. The prophets of Judah

Answer: C. The sons of Jacob

What does Malachi 3:7 say the people have turned away from?

- A. My statutes
- B. Their wealth
- C. Their families
- D. Their neighbors

Answer: A. My statutes

In Malachi 3:8, what does God accuse the people of robbing Him of?

- A. Tithes and offerings
- B. His blessings
- C. His presence
- D. His love

Answer: A. Tithes and offerings

