

Who did Jesus call first to be his disciples?

- A. Thomas and Peter
- B. James and John
- C. Simon and Andrew
- D. Matthew and Philip

Answer: C. Simon and Andrew

What were Simon and Andrew doing when Jesus called them?

- A. Traveling
- B. Praying
- C. Selling goods
- D. Fishing

Answer: D. Fishing

Where did Jesus first meet Simon and Andrew?

- A. On a mountain
- B. By the Sea of Galilee
- C. In a market
- D. In a synagogue

Answer: B. By the Sea of Galilee

What did Jesus say to Simon and Andrew when he called them?

- A. Return to your families.

- B. Stay here and pray.
- C. Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men.
- D. Go and start a business.

Answer: C. Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men.

What was the immediate response of Simon and Andrew to Jesus' call?

- A. They ignored him.
- B. They laughed at him.
- C. They left their nets and followed him.
- D. They asked for more time.

Answer: C. They left their nets and followed him.

Who else did Jesus call to be his disciples in this passage?

- A. James and John
- B. Matthew and Philip
- C. Andrew and Simon
- D. Peter and Thomas

Answer: A. James and John

What was the occupation of James and John before they followed Jesus?

- A. They were farmers.
- B. They were tax collectors.
- C. They were mending their nets.
- D. They were shepherds.

Answer: C. They were mending their nets.

How did James and John respond to Jesus' call?

- A. They asked for permission from their father.
- B. They immediately left their father and followed him.
- C. They rejected Jesus' offer.
- D. They wanted to finish their work first.

Answer: B. They immediately left their father and followed him.

What did Jesus promise to make Simon, Andrew, James, and John?

- A. Fishermen
- B. Businessmen
- C. Travelers
- D. Fishers of men

Answer: D. Fishers of men

What was the significance of Jesus calling fishermen to be his disciples?

- A. It was just a coincidence.
- B. It showed that anyone can be called to follow Jesus.
- C. It was a mistake.
- D. It meant Jesus liked fishing.

Answer: B. It showed that anyone can be called to follow Jesus.

